The Living Church of God bases its beliefs on the Holy Bible, the inspired Word of God. Our doctrines, practices, policies and traditions have their roots in the Worldwide Church of God under the leadership of Mr. Herbert W. Armstrong who, in 1952, ordained the late Dr. Roderick C. Meredith (our founding Presiding Evangelist) as one of that organization’s first evangelists. Today, Gerald E. Weston, who was ordained an evangelist by Dr. Meredith in 2007, serves as our Presiding Evangelist.

Scripture says that we must “grow in the grace and knowledge of our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ” (2 Peter 3:18). Within that biblical mandate, the Presiding Evangelist and Council of Elders of the Living Church of God, led by the Holy Spirit, have the responsibility to clarify and establish doctrine, as expressed in this Official Statement of Fundamental Beliefs.

THE CHURCH, ITS NAME AND ITS MISSION

The biblical name of the true Church is “the Church of God.” God names things what they are. The name is clearly stated in both singular and plural form in twelve different places in the New Testament—including Acts 20:28; 1 Corinthians 1:2; 10:32; 11:16; 1 Timothy 3:15.

The Living Church of God, with its world headquarters in the United States of America, has members in many countries around the world and fulfills a threefold mission: 1. To preach the true Gospel of the Kingdom of God (Mark 1:14; Matthew 24:14; Ezekiel 3 and 33), and the name of Jesus Christ (Acts 8:12) to all nations as a witness. 2. To feed the flock and to organize local Church congregations to provide for the spiritual and material needs of our members as God makes it possible (1 Peter 5:1–4; John 21:15–18). 3. To preach the end-time prophecies and to warn the English-speaking nations and all the world of the coming Great Tribulation (Matthew 24:21).

THE HOLY BIBLE

The Bible is the inspired revelation from God to mankind. It is the true basis of all Church doctrine (Matthew 4:4; 2 Timothy 3:16). We believe the Bible is inerrant in its original manuscripts and is the authoritative foundation for all true knowledge (John 17:17).

WHO AND WHAT IS GOD?

The Father and the Son comprise the “Godhead.” There is one God (1 Corinthians 8:4 and Deuteronomy 6:4). Scripture shows that God is a divine Family which began with two, God the Father and the Word (Genesis 1:26; Ephesians 2:19; 3:15; Hebrews 2:10–11).

God is Spirit and is Eternal:

The Father is the Supreme Being in the Godhead. Jesus Christ said that He was sent to reveal the Father (Matthew 11:27; John 1:18; 17:24–26) and acknowledged that His Father was greater than He (John 10:29; 14:28).
The Son, Jesus Christ, is the “Word” (Greek logos), through whom the Father created all things (John 1:1–3), the “only begotten Son” of the Father (John 1:14, 18; 3:16, 18) and Savior of all mankind (1 John 4:14). He died for our sins and was resurrected that we might be saved from eternal death (Acts 4:10–12). He now sits at the Father’s right hand and acts as our High Priest and as the Living Head of the Church (Ephesians 1:22–23; Hebrews 4:14–16).

THE HOLY SPIRIT
God is Spirit. The Holy Spirit is the very essence, the mind, life and power of God. It is not a Being. The Spirit is inherent in the Father and the Son, and emanates from Them throughout the entire universe (1 Kings 8:27; Psalm 139:7; Jeremiah 23:24). It was through the Spirit that God created all things (Genesis 1:1–2; Revelation 4:11). It is the power by which Christ maintains the universe (Hebrews 1:2–3). It is given to all who repent of their sins and are baptized (Acts 2:38–39) and is the power (Acts 1:8; 2 Timothy 1:6–7) by which all believers may be “overcomers” (Romans 8:37, KJV; Revelation 2:26–27) and will be led to eternal life.

THE GOSPEL
The Gospel of Christ is the “Good News” of the soon-coming Kingdom and government of God, and of the forgiveness of our sins through Christ’s sacrifice. Christ’s Gospel of the Kingdom of God reveals the means by which we are to be qualified by God to be ruling members of His Kingdom (Acts 2:38–39; Mark 1:14–15; Matthew 24:14; Acts 8:12; 17:7; 28:30–31; Revelation 2:26–27).

SAVIGATION
Salvation is God’s gift by grace through faith in Jesus Christ (Titus 3:5; 2 Corinthians 2:15; Romans 5:10). Upon repentance and baptism, God justifies us from our past sins. We then begin an ongoing process of “being saved” as we grow in the grace and knowledge of Christ (2 Peter 3:18). Our salvation will be complete at the resurrection (1 Corinthians 15:50–54). In observing the biblical Festivals and Sabbaths, we come to understand more deeply God’s plan of salvation, and the steps toward salvation that we take as Christians.

Steps toward salvation:

Faith in Christ
The first important step toward salvation is coming to complete faith in God and in Christ’s sacrifice (Hebrews 6:1; 11:6). Peter said, “be baptized in the name of Jesus Christ for the remission of sins” (Acts 2:36–38).

Repentance
A vital step toward salvation is repentance of sin—repentance of transgressing God’s law (1 John 3:4). As the New Testament Church began, Peter was inspired to command, “Repent, and be baptized every one of you…” (Acts 2:38). Since every human being has sinned (Romans 3:23), and the penalty of sin is death (Romans 6:23), each sinner must turn from breaking God’s law, and be willing to obey His Maker through Christ living within him (Galatians 2:20).

Baptism by immersion
After God calls us and brings us to repentance, and we accept Christ as our personal Lord and Savior, the next vital step to salvation is water baptism. One should be baptized (Acts 2:38; 8:35–39; 9:1–18) as a sign of total surrender to God and of a willingness to bury the old self (Romans 6:3–6).

Receiving God’s grace
Salvation is the result of the application of both God’s “law” and His “grace” (Greek charis). “For by grace you have been saved through faith, and that not of yourselves; it [that faith] is the gift of God, not of works, lest anyone should boast” (Ephesians 2:8–9)! We are “justified by His [Christ’s] blood” and are “reconciled to God through the death of His Son [but] we shall be saved by His life” (Romans 5:9–10).

At baptism, the Christian enters the “new covenant” with God (Matthew 26:28). That new covenant does not do away with the law of God. God writes His laws in our minds and hearts (Hebrews 8:8–10). When one is baptized, he or she makes a solemn covenant with God that, with the help of the Holy Spirit, he will keep His commandments and live a godly life from that day onward! It is Christ who actually lives His obedient life within us through the Holy Spirit. As the Apostle Paul was inspired to write, “I am crucified with Christ: nevertheless I live; yet not I, but Christ liveth in me: and the life which I now live in the flesh I live by the faith of the Son of God, who loved me, and gave himself for me” (Galatians 2:20, KJV).
Receiving God’s Holy Spirit
When we repent, accept Jesus and are baptized, God forgives us our sins (Acts 2:38; cf. Psalm 103:3, 10–13). If we are truly to overcome sin, we must receive God’s “power from on high” (Luke 24:49). Through God’s dynamic Spirit we can keep His commandments. According to New Testament teaching, the Holy Spirit was given through the laying on of the hands of Christ’s Apostles, or elders (Acts 8:17; 9:17; 19:6; 2 Timothy 1:6).

Exercising “living” faith
According to the Word of God, faith is vital for salvation, being one of the foundational doctrines of the Bible (Hebrews 6:1). “Without faith it is impossible to please Him” (Hebrews 11:6). But living faith involves doing what God says, obeying Him! “Faith without works is dead” (James 2:20).

Growing in the “grace and knowledge of God”
After repentance, acceptance of Christ, baptism and receipt of the Holy Spirit by the laying on of hands (Acts 8:17–18), the recently baptized and newly begotten child of God must continue to “grow in the grace and knowledge of our Lord” (2 Peter 3:18). “Glorification”—putting on immortality—is the final step in receiving salvation (1 Corinthians 15:53). Ultimate salvation for mankind comes at glorification in His Kingdom (Ephesians 5:27; Philippians 3:21; 2 Timothy 2:10).

GOD’S MASTER PLAN OF SALVATION
God’s annual Festivals are listed in Leviticus 23 and in Deuteronomy 16. These God-given holy days were commanded to be observed “forever” (Leviticus 23:14, 21, 31, 41). The Apostolic Church observed the annual Sabbaths (Acts 2; 12:3–4; 18:21; 20:6, 16; 27:9; 1 Corinthians 16:8). These Sabbaths will continue to be observed during Christ’s millennial rule (Zechariah 14:1, 9, 16–19).

God’s annual Festivals picture the seven vital steps in His plan of salvation:

1. The Passover pictures the sacrifice of Jesus Christ, the “Lamb of God” (John 1:29, 36; Revelation 5:6) sacrificed for us, (1 Corinthians 5:7). Jesus established the New Testament Passover with the symbols of bread and wine (1 Corinthians 11:23–26).

2. The Seven Days of Unleavened Bread typify purging the leaven of malice and wickedness out of the believer’s life, and partaking of God’s nature, the “unleavened bread of sincerity and truth” (1 Corinthians 5:6–13; Luke 12:1).

3. The Feast of Firstfruits (Pentecost) pictures the small harvest of “begotten” followers of Christ who will be harvested at the “first resurrection” (Revelation 20:4–5), as “a kind of firstfruits” (James 1:18).

4. The Feast of Trumpets points prophetically to the second coming of Jesus Christ (Matthew 24:31; 1 Corinthians 15:52; 1 Thessalonians 4:13–17; Revelation 11:15–18; 19:15; Zechariah 14:9).

5. The Day of Atonement pictures the banishment of Satan, and man’s becoming “at one” with God (Leviticus 16:8, 10, 15–27; Revelation 20:1–3).

7. The Last Great Day features the great judgment that will occur at the end of the millennial reign of Jesus Christ on earth (John 7:37; Leviticus 23:36, 39, 33–34; Revelation 20:11–12).

THE LAW OF GOD
God’s basic spiritual law is summed up in the “Ten Commandments” (Exodus 20:1–17; Deuteronomy 4:13; 10:4). In the “Sermon on the Mount” and elsewhere, Jesus magnified God’s law (Matthew chapters 5–7; Isaiah 42:21), showing His followers that they must obey both the letter and the “spirit.” Wherefore the law is holy, and the commandment holy, and just, and good” (Romans 7:12). It is practicing this way of life—through Christ living in us (Galatians 2:20)—that makes one a true “saint” (Revelation 14:12).
GOD’S SABBATH

The Word of God commands us, “Remember the Sabbath to keep it holy” and reveals that “the seventh day is the Sabbath of the Lord your God” (Exodus 20:10; Deuteronomy 5:14). It is to be kept holy from sunset Friday to sunset Saturday by ceasing our labors. To profane God’s holy time is sin. It is God’s “sign” between Him and His faithful people, picturing God’s “rest” and reminding us that He is Creator. It also pictures the Millennium – the coming 1,000-year “rest” when Christ returns as King of Kings (Hebrews 4:1-4; Revelation 20:4-6). Jesus Christ, the Apostles and the early Church always observed God’s commanded Sabbath (Luke 4:16; Acts 17:2), and it will be observed by “all flesh” during Christ’s coming millennial rule over the earth (Isaiah 66:23).

SIN–AND ITS CONSEQUENCES

“Sin is lawlessness” (1 John 3:4). “Sin is the transgression of the law [of God]” (1 John 3:4, KJV). “All have sinned and come short of the glory of God” (Romans 3:23) and “the wages [payoff] of sin is death” (Romans 6:23).

THE FIRST DEATH

Death is the natural “cessation of life” (Genesis 2:17; Ezekiel 18:4). “In Adam all die” (1 Corinthians 15:22). “It is appointed for men to die once” (Hebrews 9:27). After experiencing the “first death,” all human beings will be resurrected back to life. The Bible reveals that all human beings, eventually, will be resurrected (John 5:28; 1 Corinthians 15:22).

THE SECOND DEATH

The “second death” is eternal death—total annihilation. Those who experience the second death shall never again regain consciousness (Malachi 4:1; Matthew 10:28; 25:46). The second death is, in fact, total extinction, (Revelation 20:14–15). “If we sin willfully” after having received the knowledge of the truth, there is no forgiveness of such willful sin (Hebrews 6:4–8; 10:26–31).

THE MEANING OF “BORN AGAIN”

With a physical human birth, there must first be “begettal” (by the male), and “conception” (by the female). With a spiritual birth, there must first be a spiritual begettal and conception. Then, after a period of “spiritual gestation” or spiritual growth (2 Peter 3:18), true Christians will someday experience a literal spiritual “birth,” thereby becoming immortal children of God. We will literally be born again at the resurrection as Christ Himself was, “declared to be the Son of God with power, according to the Spirit of holiness, by the resurrection from the dead” (Romans 1:4).

GOD’S FORM OF CHURCH GOVERNMENT

The Father is supreme in authority, and His Son Jesus Christ is under Him in rank and authority (John 14:28). The “head [leader] of Christ is God [the Father]” (1 Corinthians 11:3), and “Christ is the Head of the Church” (Ephesians 5:23). God governs with love, and continues this pattern throughout His Church. Under the Father and under His Son, Jesus Christ, are “[1] apostles, [2] prophets, [3] evangelists, [4] pastors and [5] teachers” (Ephesians 4:11). God’s way of governing has always been government from the top down (Exodus 18:21–26).

Jesus taught “Servant Leadership” by His Word and example (Matthew 20:25–28). He said, “You know that the princes of the Gentiles exercise dominion over them, and they that are great exercise authority upon them. But it shall not be so among you: but whosoever will be great among you, let him be your minister; and whosoever will be chief among you, let him be your servant. Even as the Son of man came not to be ministered unto, but to minister, and to give his life a ransom for many” (KJV).

CHURCH HISTORY

The Living Church of God traces its history from the Apostolic Church in the Book of Acts (the Ephesian era) to the present. The message to the seven Churches in Revelation two and three successively shows the history of the true Church from that time forward. These seven Churches describe succeeding eras, or ages, of God’s Church. We believe that the Philadelphia era began in the 1930s, and that we are a continuation of that Philadelphia era.

TITHING

God is the Creator of everything that exists (Revelation 4:11). As Lord of the universe, He exercises ownership and control over all His creation (Acts 17:24–29). Jesus Christ said men “ought” to tithe (Matthew 23:23). The Bible shows that “All the tithe… is the Lord’s” (Leviticus 27:30). Long before the Old Covenant, Abraham—“the father of the faithful”—paid a tithe to God’s representative (Genesis 14:20). Through tithing, Christians serve God by supporting the preaching of the Gospel, attendance at His festivals and the care of the Church and the needy.
DEFINING MARRIAGE
Marriage is a covenant between a man and a woman. Since God made us male and female, He is the Author of marriage. Marriage is a type of the relationship between Christ and the Church (Ephesians 5:22–33). With a very few God-given exceptions (Matthew 19:8; 1 Corinthians 7), it is binding on Christians until death (Matthew 19:3–9).

OVERCOMING RACIAL PREJUDICE
God’s Word commands all mankind to love their neighbors as themselves (Leviticus 19:18; Matthew 22:39; Acts 17:24–29). God reveals that salvation is now freely offered to both Jews and Gentiles (Acts 10:34–35; Romans 10:12–13; cf. Joel 2:32). We believe love and deep respect should be shown to people of all ethnicities (Romans 13:10).

SEPARATION FROM THE WORLD
The Bible teaches that Satan the devil has deceived the whole world (Revelation 12:9), that God’s people need to be separate from the world’s systems (John 15:19; Revelation 18:4).

This separation means that those called of God live a different way of life and that we are in a real sense Ambassadors of God’s government (Ephesians 6:20; 1 Peter 2:9–10). Thus, historically, the Church of God has taught its members not to participate in secular juries or worldly politics.

MILITARY SERVICE AND WAR
The Living Church of God follows the teaching of Jesus and His Apostles. Jesus said, “But I say to you who hear: Love your enemies, do good to those who hate you, bless those who curse you, and pray for those who spitefully use you. To him who strikes you on the one cheek, offer the other also. And from him who takes away your cloak, do not withhold your tunic either” (Luke 6:27–29). The Apostle James, brother of Jesus, continued teaching Jesus’ message concerning violence and war (James 4:1–10).

The Church of God has historically considered military service wrong for its members. Records show that from the American Revolution through the two World Wars and subsequent police actions, members of the Church of God have consistently held to conscientious objection against military participation.

DIVINE HEALING
Healing is one of the “spiritual gifts” (1 Corinthians 12:1, 9). One of God’s Hebrew names is Yahweh Ropheka, meaning the Eternal who heals. The Lord is a Great God who “forgives all your iniquities, who heals all your diseases” (Psalm 103:3; 1 Peter 2:24). “Is anyone among you sick? Let him call for the elders of the church, and let them pray over him, anointing him with oil in the name of the Lord. And the prayer of faith will save the sick, and the Lord will raise him up. And if he has committed sins, he will be forgiven. Confess your trespasses to one another, and pray for one another, that you may be healed. The effective, fervent prayer of a righteous man avails much” (James 5:14–16).

The Living Church of God follows this direct biblical instruction. We believe that God does heal today according to one’s faith and God’s will in each particular case.

GOD’S HEALTH LAW CONCERNING MEATS
Genesis 7:1–2, Leviticus 11 and Deuteronomy 14 give God’s instructions concerning what He created “clean” (edible) and “unclean” (inedible). Long after the crucifixion, Peter still recognized this law as binding (Acts 10:14). Moreover, after his vision of unclean animals brought down on a sheet, Peter exclaimed: “God has shown me that I should call no man common or unclean” (v. 28).

ORIGIN OF MODERN ISRAELITES
One of the most vital keys to understanding prophecy is to know the true biblical origin of the Jews and the “lost” ten tribes of Israel—and the Northwest European countries settled by their descendants.

The Anglo-American peoples are the possessors of the birthright promises and accompanying blessings of Abraham’s descendants through his grandson Jacob. God’s Word reveals that Jacob’s descendants from Joseph will be overtaken by a time of great trouble—a time called “Jacob’s trouble”—because they have dishonored the Creator who gave them the greatest national blessings in human history (Jeremiah 30:4–7; Matthew 24:21; Daniel 12:1).

THE “GREAT TRIBULATION”
The Bible speaks of a time of great catastrophe, called the “Great Tribulation” (Matthew 24:21–22; Daniel 11:40–45; 12:1; Luke 21:19–36)—also called “Jacob’s trouble” (Jeremiah 30:3–7). Jesus Christ Himself will have to shorten those hellish days; otherwise “no flesh would be saved” (Matthew 24:22). We believe that we are fast approaching that time.

THE “DAY OF THE LORD”
The Day of the Lord, mentioned in more than 30 places in the Bible, will be a time of God’s intervention in the affairs of men on this earth, when He will punish the inhabitants of the earth for their flagrant sins (Joel 1:14–20; 2:1–32; 3:9–17).

According to Matthew 24:29–31, there will be signs in heaven, “the sun will be darkened, and the moon will not give its light; the stars will fall from heaven” immediately after the tribulation and before the Day of the Lord. God said, “I will show wonders in the heavens and in the earth... The sun shall be turned into darkness, and the moon into blood, before the coming of the great and awesome day of the L ORD” (Joel 2:30–31).

CHRIST’S SECOND COMING
Jesus solemnly promised His disciples ten times in Matthew 24 that He would assuredly “come again” to this earth (cf. John 14:3). He said “tribulation” would precede the coming of the Son of Man (Matthew 24:29–30). His coming, with a “great sound of a trumpet” (v. 31), will occur when the “seventh trumpet” sounds (Revelation 11:15). That trumpet is also called the “last trumpet” (1 Corinthians 15:52; 1 Thessalonians 4:13–18). This is the “first resurrection,” and those who take part in that resurrection will reign with Christ on earth “for a thousand years” (Revelation 5:9–10; 20:4, 6).

MANKIND’S ORIGIN, INCREDIBLE POTENTIAL AND ULTIMATE DESTINY
God created mankind out of the “dust of the earth” (Genesis 2:7). Human beings are made in God’s “image [and] likeness” (Genesis 1:26; cf. 5:3); they are also given a God-like mind and emotions. God planned that those who repent of their sins and are baptized shall receive God’s Spirit (Acts 2:38–39; John 3:16). At Christ’s second coming, all of those converted in this life, whether dead or alive, will be given immortality—born as full “sons of God, being sons of the resurrection” (Luke 20:36).

“Blessed are the meek for they shall inherit the earth” (Matthew 5:5; cf. Psalm 37:9, 11, 22, 29, 34). “He who overcomes shall inherit all things [the universe]” (Revelation 21:7).

According to all the prophecies and promises of the Bible, God’s “firstfruits” (those called in this age) will be rewarded with a place or position of rulership in God’s Kingdom (John 14:1–3; Revelation 3:21; 20:4–6), right here on this earth (Revelation 2:26–27; 5:10; Daniel 2:44). The true saints will become full sons of God—“sons of the resurrection” (Luke 20:36). God’s purpose is that He is reproducing Himself and that those converted, ultimately, become full members of the Family of God, under the authority of the Father and the Son (1 John 3:1–3). They will share divine glory in the resurrection. Jesus prayed, “And the glory which You gave Me I have given them, that they may be one just as We are one: I in them, and You in Me; that they may be made perfect in one, and that the world may know that You have sent Me, and have loved them as You have loved Me” (John 17:22–23).
